Consorzio Venezia Nuova has offered bursaries to E.MA students 2008/2009

Consorzio Venezia Nuova (CVN) has generously offered grant money which has been made available in the form of 5 bursaries. They have been awarded on the basis of financial need, taking into account that Consorzio Venezia Nuova indicated an expectation that the support would primarily be offered to students from the new EU Member States and from non-EU countries. The E.MA Executive Committee has finally decided to grant the CVN bursaries to the following E.MA students 2008/2009: Magdalena Borowska, Luz Cardona Canales, Mariana Machado Rocha, Danilo Rossi and Stanislas Talontsi.
