EIUC EU-UN Fellowship Programme

The European Inter-University Centre for Human Rights and Democratisation (EIUC) is offering to the E.MA graduates of the past 5 years, two positions as fellows in the framework of the EIUC Fellowship Programme.

The Fellowship will start on Monday, 29 August 2016 and will end on Friday, 23 December 2016 (dates may vary depending on availability of delegations). The placement offices will be the European Union Delegations in Geneva and New York (one fellow for each office for the entire duration of the programme) where the fellows will assist the delegation in following the United Nations Human Rights Council and United Nations General Assembly and related bodies dealing with Human Rights.

The fellows will perform tasks as set out by their supervisors.

Tasks may include, but are not limited to, carrying out research, writing reports and evaluations on negotiations, assisting in the drafting of EU statements and resolutions, as well as participating in negotiations with EU and other countries' delegates. Some administrative tasks can be expected. Often, overtime will be required.

Overall administrative management of the Fellowship Programme is provided by EIUC.

Fellows will be entitled to the following per diem (gross amount): 106 € gross (for the fellow placed in New York) or 86 € gross (for the fellow placed in Geneva) *;

The per diem is to be considered ALL inclusive. No additional expenses will be reimbursed.

Candidates MUST:

- BE E.MA graduates from a.y. 2010/2011 to present
- Be European Union citizens
- NOT have had prior working commitments (including internships) within any European Institution**
- HAVE excellent knowledge of English and solid knowledge of French

Interested candidates should send an updated cv (specifying the title of their E.MA Thesis) and one letter of motivation by Sunday, 12 June 2016 at 11 p.m. (CET) to lucia.fanicchi@eiuc.org. All CVs will be considered for both delegations, candidates shall not express any preference; only one letter of motivation is required. No additional documentation will be taken into account. Should you have any further doubt, please contact Ms Fanicchi at the email address provided above.

\(Article 50, clause 1, letter c) of the Testo Unico delle Imposte sui Redditi includes among incomes considered to be similar to those of employed labor “sums paid by anyone in the form of a scholarship, check, prize or subsidy for the purposes of study or professional training, if the beneficiary is not bound by relations of regular employment to the provider of funds” (tax law in force as of 31.07.2010). The net sum paid will thus vary according to the overall tax situation of the recipient of the payment, as well as the nature of the taxation system itself, which varies from year to year.*

\* meaning any Institution of the European Union; previous experience at the Council of Europe would still be OK.*
