Global Campus Europe Field Trip

The academic year of the European Master's Programme in Human Rights and Democratisation is divided into two semesters; during the first one, our students have their Field trip. The field trip is a trademark of EMA and has been organised by Mag. Marijana Grandits (from the Ludwig Boltzmann Institute of Human Rights at the University of Vienna) for years, first in Bosnia and Herzegovina

(1998-2003) and then in Kosovo since 2004. This field training aims to provide insights into the practical tasks, difficulties, and expectations human rights officers face in the field, and to get a better understanding of the situation in a post-conflict country.

The Field trip comprises visits to international organizations as well as local and regional nongovernmental organizations working on human rights issues, such as property claims, torture related questions, legal advice, women's rights, democratic elections, free media and children's rights. Students stay with host families and are required to participate in all activities and events organised by the EMA academic staff, external facilitators from the EU and other experts (it is included in the tuition fees).

You can see more about the Kosovo Field Trip (15 - 22 January 2019) by following the Facebook Page managed by the Global Campus Europe students: pics, comments, meetings...

Admissions to the 2019/2020 edition of the European Master's Programme in Human Rights and Democratisation (EMA) are open: first deadline – 28 January 2019, second deadline - 25 March 2019.

The European Master's Programme in Human Rights and Democratisation (EMA) is organised by the European Inter-University Centre for Human Rights and Democratisation (EIUC); it was created with the support of the European Union and 41 participating universities from all the EU member states.
