ILO workshop on Labour Inspection Sanctions and Remedies

In partnership with the University of Venice "Cà Foscari", the International Labour Organisation will hold a workshop on Labour Inspection Sanctions and Remedies (2-3 December 2010). This event will be held at Auditorium S. Margherita in Venice. Its aim is to study how labour administration and inspection systems are crucial for labour market governance, equitable economic development and, above all, the effective implementation of international labour standards.
