

Posted on

28.01.2015

Share on

- Facebook
- Twitter
- LinkedIn
- Email

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT: E.MA Programme Director

The European Inter-University Centre for Human Rights and Democratisation (EIUC) is seeking a qualified individual for the position of E.MA Programme Director for the academic year 2015/2016. The position, which is being posted at the level of university professor or senior researcher, involves a combination of teaching, organisation, and various academic and practical responsibilities connected with the E.MA programme. Working under the instructions of the E.MA and EIUC governing bodies and in cooperation with the EIUC Secretary General, the candidate selected will assume primary responsibility for the academic coordination of the E.MA programme and the E.MA secretariat a.y. 2015/16. He or she will furthermore be involved in the development of new academic and research-based activities in the context of the EIUC.

Functions and tasks

The E.MA Programme Director will work as member of the permanent EIUC staff, based in Venice - the Lido. Tasks will include the following:

1. To coordinate the advanced planning of the E.MA programme;
2. To oversee in the daily management of the E.MA programme – including the first semester field trip, which in recent years has been going to Kosovo – with a view to maintaining the excellent standards and academic coherence of the first semester courses;
3. To establish advance contact with academic responsables, lecturers and experts, and assist the academic responsables and other lecturers in carrying out the scientific and educational programme;

4. To supervise and coordinate Teaching Assistants in the performance of their tasks;
5. To supervise the work of the E.MA secretariat
6. To supervise the internship programme and the fellowship programme
7. To organise and teach seminars introducing one of the core disciplines (law, political science, international relations) of the E.MA programme;
8. To set up and lead working groups and workshops incorporated in the academic programme;
9. To oversee the assessment of student assignments;
10. To exercise a proactive role in identifying and rectifying problems of an academic nature;
11. To take a proactive role in the development of additional academic activities in the context of the EIUC; this may include initiating and facilitating research collaboration, academic publication, and the organisation of training courses, seminars and conferences.

Qualifications

Doctorate in a relevant discipline (e.g. law, political science, international relations), teaching experience, good publication record, team-working ability, administrative experience. Excellent knowledge of English.

The selected candidate will be expected to take up the position no later than beginning of September 2015.

Salary negotiable, depending on qualifications.

Deadline for sending applications is March 15th, 2015

Please send a cover letter and a curriculum vitae in English to Florence Benoit-Rohmer, EIUC Secretary General, Monastery of San Nicolò, Riviera San Nicolò 26, Venezia-Lido 30126, Italy, by email: florence.benoit-rohmer@eiuc.org and in cc claudia.zanchi@eiuc.org