Visit of the High National Elections Commission in Libya to Training for International Electoral Observers

On 20 November 2014 a two-member delegation of the High National Elections Commission in Libya (HNEC) led by Dr. Emad Al-Shathli Al-Sayah, Chairman of Board of the HNEC in Libya and Dr. Jamal B. Omran Bugrien, President of the HNEC in Benghazi visited the training seminar for international electoral observers organised by the European Inter-University Centre for Human Rights and Democratisation.

The visit was financially supported by International Foundation for Electoral Systems (IFES) an international, non-profit organization whose goal is supporting citizens' right to participate in free and fair elections through the strengthening of electoral systems and building local capacity to deliver sustainable solutions.

Thanks to this fruitful meeting, EIUC and HNEC work together on a Memorandum of Understanding on possible joint activities related to democracy promotion, good governance and democratic rights. At the same time, EIUC closely with IFES prepare a Memorandum of Understanding in order to train Libyan officials in the future.

In view of the unanimous agreements reached in the negotiations on Training for International Electoral Observers, the EIUC would like to thank the participation and contribution made towards the success of EIUC training seminar for International Short-Term Observers.
