The university and the city

Eötvös Loránd University, Faculty of Social Sciences (ELTE TáTK) was established in 2003 as the legal successor of the ELTE Sociological and Welfare Institute and Further Education Centre. Today the Faculty has six institutes and fourteen departments.

Institute of Political and International Studies at ELTE TáTK (Head: Dr. Balázs Majtényi), coordinating institute of the EMA cooperation

The Institute is responsible for the BA and MA programs of International Relations. We have masters programmes in international human rights, in security policy, and in European development policy, we participate in the political science MA, and in the doctoral program at the interdisciplinary doctoral school of the Faculty.

Budapest: capital of Hungary, approx 1.7 mill inhabitants. Good public transport, affordable housing, lively international cultural and university scene. For details see: http://www.budapestinfo.hu/en/general\_information.
