The roundtable is part of the programme of the Venice Academy of Human Rights. The Venice Academy is a new centre of excellence for human rights education, research, and debate. It forms part of the European Inter-University Centre for Human Rights and Democratization which is a leading centre for research and education in Europe. The mission of the Venice Academy is to provide a forum for emerging ideas, practices, and policy options in human rights research, education, and training. The Academy hosts distinguished experts to participate in critical and useful research, innovation, and exchange of current knowledge.
